SUIT IN EQUITY AGAINST DISTRICT.

A BANK ENTERS THE COMPLAINT.

Reserve Deposit of a Contractor
Cause of Litigation—Cancellation of a Tax Sale—Tunnel Under Patent Office.

The Commissioners have been notified of a suit in equity filed in the Supreme Court, naming Henry C. Holdea, William Oscar Roome and the District of Columbia as defendants. The purpose of the suit is to recover the sum of $78.53 from the District, which is alleged to be due by Mr. Holder to the Ohio National Bank of Washington, which brings the suit.

TRANSACTIONS WITH THE BANK, GIVING NOTICE AND SIGNING OVER HIS INTEREST IN THE RESERVE FUND IN THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES TREASURER AS SECURITY.

In the petition to the court the complainant sets forth that Mr. Holden should be enjoined from receiving the money due under the contract, and that the same should be paid over to the bank on his account. To effect this the suit is brought with the parties named as defendants.

Yesterday J. T. Petty, the District Auditor, submitted a report upon the case, in which he says that the guaranty period ended on November 9, 1901, and the Superintendent of Sewers reported at that time that the work was in good condition and that no repairs were necessary. The Auditor says that, in accordance with the usual custom, the Treasurer of the United States was notified, and advised that final settlement was authorized.

The Auditor takes the view that this terminated the connection of the District with the contract, and also its responsibility for the payment of the reserve fund.

Cancellation of Tax Sale.

Andrew B. Duval, the Attorney for the District, yesterday submitted an opinion

TO THE COMMISSIONERS RELATIVE TO THE CANCELLATION OF TAX SALE ON PROPERTY ON WHICH AN ERRONEOUS CERTIFICATE WAS ISSUED.

The property in question is the south half of lot 3, block 3, Burdett's subdivision of Mount Airy and Friendship, a valuable parcel assessed in the name of Isaac E. Shumaker, and now owned by J. W. Collins.

Facts show that there was default in the payment of taxes on the lot for the year 1898, and that it was advertised and sold to Charles S. Wiltzie, of Rochester, N. Y., in the tax sale of 1899. But the record of the tax sale in the office of the Collector of Taxes improperly describes the property as lot 30 instead of lot 3.

Due to these clerical errors in the records, a statement of taxes was issued to Mr. Williamson, July 12, 1899, from which was omitted any reference to the tax of 1898 or the sale of 1899.

Mr. Duval stated that, in his opinion, the description of the property contained in the written report of the Collector of Taxes filed with the Recorder of Deeds was fatally defective. He says there was a sale of lot 3, and a reported sale of lot 30. Mr. Duval says that the sale of lot 30 is the subject of this report is to give notice to the owner of the property and to all persons dealing therewith that it has been sold for taxes, which in this case manifestly failed to accomplish the purpose.

The Attorney advises the Commissioners that a conveyance of the property based upon the tax sale of 1899 would be ineffectual to give title, and that, therefore, the sale should be canceled and the purchase money refunded to the purchaser.

Road Under Patent Office.

A few interested persons are behind an endeavor to cut an archway through the Patent Office building from north to south, so as to continue Eighth Street through between F and G Streets. It has been suggested that such an archway would spoil the south approaches to the building, which constitute one of the really beautiful architectural effects on the public buildings of Washington. This, however, does not daunt the advocates of change, and they prefer to change the beautiful stairways for a dirty tunnel under the building.

The matter has just been revived in a letter to the Commissioners from Joseph I. Keefe, who asks them to do all in their power to bring about the result described. Mr. Keefe refers to the petition sent to Congress at the last session, and says the project is to be renewed at the next session. Mr. Keefe says that the proposed tunnel would accommodate business in that quarter of the city and would be a convenience of great value. Mr. Keefe suggests that common sense demands legislation which will effect the change.

TRESPASS IN BATHING BEACH.

A Regulation Wanted Covering the Taking of Bath.

The District Commissioners have recently received a number of complaints relative to the taking of bath from the waters of the bathing beach. They have been informed that this was done in violation of law, and have been asked to put a stop to the practice.

An appeal to the United States Commission of Fish and Fisheries showed that the permits issued by that Commission, covering the waters of the District of Columbia, are general in character and do not apply to special localities. J. H. Dunlop, Secretary to the Commission, stated that if any restrictions were made they would have to be enforced by the authorities governing the bathing beach.

Major Sylvester, in a report upon the subject, recommended that the Commissioners prohibit all persons from taking bath from these waters. He said this action was necessary, as the bath is under control of the Commissioners.

He thought that there was sufficient ground for the restriction in the water of the Potomac without infringing upon the bathing beach.

LODGER RANSACKS HOUSE.

Stranger Rents a Room and Steals Two Gold Watches.

A young man who recently rented a room on the second floor at 1822 Jefferson Place, before taking up his quarters betook himself to the third floor of the house while the occupants thereof were absent. When there he found a gold watch and concealed it. He then went to another part of the house, where he found a second gold watch. This, he thought, would further help him to be on time, and he appropriated it also, and then fled from the house.

Since that time he has not been seen or heard of.

The losers by the deal are Mrs. Emily T. McNeill and Mrs. Rita R. G. McNeill. The young man, when at the house, stated that he was connected with the Judge Publishing Company.

BICYCLE VICTIM IMPROVED.

James McNabb, Suffering From Brain Concussion, Expected to Recover.

The condition of James McNabb, the victim of a bicycle accident at Third and D Streets northwest, Friday afternoon, and who is still at the Emergency Hospital, is said to be much improved. He is suffering from concussion of the brain. The doctors say that the chances for his recovery are very good.

Mr. McNabb was injured by being knocked down by a bicycle, ridden by William Warner, who was following a fire engine. Warner is still detained at the Sixth precinct, waiting the result of Mr. McNabb's injuries.
